WHEAT IS LOWER, BUT

Corn Made an Advance--The Chances Are Wheat Will Advance Sharply on Next Monday.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, Oct. 23.--As for previous days of the week there was good action in wheat, both in early and late trading. A number of big commission houses had good selling orders around top figures and the market began to weaken gradually at first and that caused local longs to dump their holdings in the last half hour of the session, forcing a sharp break. There was a little steadier feeling at the close. The trade naturally anticipated the big world's shipments on Monday, the probable increase in the visible supply and the probable liberal receipts both in the northwest and southwest.

Corn prices made a little early advance in line with the strength in wheat. The market showed little force around top prices and as soon as the edge was off the bull market in wheat, corn began to weaken. The big short interest in the trade got over its uneasiness because there was a forecast of fair weather for the western states the next 30 hours.

December oats prices continues to hold around 40 cents and the May around 42 1/2.

In provisions the heaviness was partly in line with weaker conditions in other markets.

FIRE MAKES THEM GET UP EARLY

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Oct. 23.--Two hundred and fifty men, women and children were awakened early today in the Hotel Irwin, and fled panic-stricken from their rooms to escape smoke and flames which were threatening to destroy the seven-story hotel.

Cried in very scant attire, the guests ran from their rooms towards the elevator and stairway, those who were crowded out of the car tumbling down the long flights of stairs, regardless of injury.

The fire started in the Irwin restaurant, adjoining the hotel on Fourth street. No one was in the place at the time. The flames, supplied by the inflammable material in the kitchen of the restaurant, rapidly ate their way through the ceiling of the place, and into the second floor of the hotel. Those occupying rooms reached by the flames and who had narrow escapes were: James Kinnell and wife, of Portland.

B. Rolley, Oakland.
J. Voorhees, San Francisco.
C. Prager, San Francisco.
E. F. Menissey, Oakland.
Miss Anna Fagan, Los Angeles.
O. Orr and M. Sullivan, Arizona.

All these, except Miss Fagan, were awakened in time by Night Watchman Boreck, who ran through the hallways, shouting the alarm. When Boreck realized that Miss Fagan had not heeded his warning, he ran back to the room occupied by her, and burst through the door. The apartment was filled with smoke, and it was with difficulty that Boreck aroused Miss Fagan and led her to safety.

The damage to the Irwin is estimated at $1000.

ENGLAND DON'T CARE FOR SNAKE VICTIMS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Calcutta, Oct. 23.--The local authorities are expected to cope with the earthquake situation without troubling the colonial headquarters until a formal report is made.

The colonial authorities are not making any effort to estimate the total number of dead at this time.

Quetta reports today that 150 bodies already have been taken from the ruins. The number who met death in the earthquake cannot be estimated at this time, but the list of fatalities is sure to greatly exceed the above figures.

The Anglo-Indian residents appear to be uninterested in the fate of the natives.

WON RACE IN PORTOLA CONTEST

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Oakland, Oct. 23.--Chaufeur Jack Fleming won the 258-mile, free-for-all race this afternoon, finishing at 2:07 o'clock this afternoon. The time elapsed was three hours, fifty nine minutes and eighteen seconds. This time is close to the world's record.

ack Fleming, led all the way today in the great Portola automobile races which resulted in the injury of half a dozen persons and probably will result in two deaths, and after winning the first event, of 159 miles, he captured the big free-for-all, covering 258 miles in three hours 59 minutes and 18 seconds.

Fleming's average time was about 63 miles an hour. Throughout the race he held his car under complete control, and met with only one accident, when on the eighth lap a tire broke, and he lost seven minutes making repairs.

The Apperson "Jack Rabbit" was second in the big race. The field toward the end had been narrowed down from sixteen cars to nine, the others having dropped out through accidents of various degrees of seriousness.

SHE WORRIED FIRST AND THEN SNUFFED OUT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, Oct. 23.--Corcoran Harburger today declared that worry over the contents of a letter from her fiancé at Butte caused Miss Leah Oppenheimer, a wealthy heiress of the Montana city, to commit suicide here late yesterday in the apartments of her sister, Mrs. George L. Simons.

Miss Oppenheimer was a sister of J. E. Oppenheimer, head of the New York Realty company, and the Somers Railway Goods company of Butte, who returned today from Europe.

Until a year ago Miss Oppenheimer was the head of one of the departments in the Butte store. She was in New York visiting her sister and expected to return to Butte next week.

Thursday, according to a maid, Miss Oppenheimer received a letter from her fiancé on a daffier reading it she seemed unhappy and burned the letter.

It is said that Miss Oppenheimer threatened suicide before, but relatives prevented.

WASHER WOMAN HAD $7.600 AND LOST IT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Omaha, Oct. 23.--William Eschle, an aged widower, today confessed to the police that he had robbed Mrs. Lizzie Wind, his washer woman, of $7600.

Eschle restored the money to Mrs. Wind on her promise not to prosecute.

Several years ago the woman lost $1000 by the failure of a bank, and since that time has carried all of her money around with her in a small box.

Yesterday she hid the box containing the money in a bundle of clothes while working at Eschle's home. Later when she started to get the money it was gone, and Eschle's arrest followed.

LAUGHS AT THE WRIGHTS' CLAIMS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, Oct. 23.--Courtland Bishop, president of the Aero Club of America, who arrived here today from Europe, characterized the claim of the Wright brothers, that their patents cover all heavier than air machines as preposterous.

He further stated that the Wrights were using practically all of the aviators of Europe.
